“ I met Aunt Ginny at Jessie’s on several occasions and she lived through Mel’s stories about her while I got my hair cut. She was a special person in many ways and she had a real ‘friend’ in Mel. She will continue to live in the stories she lived in life and will now rest easy in the arms of the Lord.

“ Virginia was a nurturer by nature. I remember her taking care of Uncle Hansel, Aunt Francis, Delayne, Laurel, Melanie, and Steve, and she was happy to do so. Virginia loved cooking for the family and her food was delicious.....especially her biscuits and desserts. When her health allowed her, she called her extended relatives to check on them daily. Virginia lived her life to the fullest; not as a disabled person but a person with a disability.

*Mel, Jess, Steve and Mr. Larson,
I really do not know were to start.
I do know, she lived the fullest and happiest life because you.
She was never treated differently and she explored with us as we grew up.
She was not just Aunt Ginny, she was our friend who loved all that life had to offer.
Hardy laughter and wonderful teenage memories with Aunt Ginny.
Much love to you all!*
