“ Virginia was always kind when I visited Graham. There were times where she would invite me to stay with her and Graham and even after Graham passed she extended this invitation. I wish I lived closer so that I could have visited more. She'll be missed.

“ My mother, Evelyn Veale Wills passed away in June of this year. I'm 66 and have always heard her talk about Ms Virginia Chapman Willis. She was raised in Sylvester with her family, dad Hubert L Veale and mother, Odessa, sister Hazel and brother Lawrence. I am sorry for your families loss. It's a small world when you open Facebook and see a familiar name from so many years ago.

“ My condolences to the family. I was her neighbor for 17 years. When she needed help with something she would call me. I usually came back home with half a pineapple upside down cake, field peas with cornbread or some other very delicious dish. She was a sweet lady that will be missed. She was Aunt Virginia to me.
