“ To Jeff and the McGill family,
I am saddened by our loss of a lovely lady, but celebrate with joy at her place next to our Lord and savior. Vonnie was always filled with kind words and wisdom. I will miss her friendship and the way she always brought a smile to my face.

“ Hi Jeff. I was a neighbor of yours in goose creek, sc. vonnie and I became friends and bible study partners. I often think of her and decided to look her up. I am sad I didn't make contact sooner, I see she has gone to be with the Lord. My condolences to you and the girls. Vonnie was very kind to me when my husband, Don, was tragically killed in a diving accident while we were stationed in Korea (1994). She was such an inspiration to me and I have a lot of good memories of her. I remember piling the kids into vonnie's Volvo station wagon for VBS and having Girl Scout meetings with the children. I have to tell you that every time I hear the name "Jeff" I think of her because I would tease her and say, " since when does Jeff have 2 syllables?!! I loved her accent. I can't forget the rattle snake in your mailbox, but mostly I remember her strong faith. She truly help strengthen my faith...faith that help me get through many difficulties. I just wanted to let you know how much she meant to me. I'm sorry I didn't get to talk to her again...someday I will. Tamara
