

Mr. Wade Shannon Thornton

August 7, 1968 - August 2, 2022

Mr. Wade Shannon Thornton, 53, of Bridgeboro, GA, died on Tuesday, August 2, 2022, at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

Per his wishes, Mr. Thornton was cremated and a memorial service will be held at a later date.

Mr. Thornton was born on August 7, 1968 in Albany, GA, to the late Richard Thornton and Sharon Ivey Tucker. He had lived Worth County most of his life. He graduated from Georgia Southern with a Masters in computer technology, and was a teacher and coach at both Dublin High and Middle School, where he coached softball, football, and basketball and led them to several state championships throughout the years. He loved motorcycles in his younger years and enjoyed motor-cross racing. He also taught himself to play the harmonica and enjoyed playing with several bands over the years.

Mr. Thornton was a member of Bridgeboro Baptist Church.

Survivors include his sister, Tami Jo Harris (Tommy), of Bridgeboro, GA.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Thornton was preceded in death by his grandparents, Cullen and Louise Ivey.

“ Hey Shannon, Doug here. So sorry to hear of your passing. Thank you so much for getting me a great deal on some horse hay in Bridgeboro back in 2006, and for building a wooden cage on the back of my truck so I could haul it. And thank you so much for making me laugh so hard I almost passed out when you told that story about what happened to you and your friend one night when you were 16. And too Tami and Tommy, thank you for allowing me to come to your house and hangout in y'all party cabin. Great times.
