“ Sorry to hear of Deloyd’s passing. He always had such a pleasant and happy smile, even the very dark night he and I almost met head-on on the curved hill above our house & he flipped his big ole car to avoid hitting me. Upon arriving there a few minutes later Wayne came up to him, and not concerned with the state of the car & checking to make sure I was ok, asked him if he was ok; Deloyd just smiled and said “Yes, sir” - and they hugged. That was what mattered- precious memories. Our thoughts and prayers to all of his family. Dan and Pat

“ Deloyd lived next door to my daddy's farm and I have many good memories of us working together for many years from a young age. I remember all the cars he had and riding with him in them and the trucks on the farm. His first car was an old 50 something jalopy, then a Torino, then his red Camaro. He scared the fool out of me a few times in them but it was always fun to ride with him. He could make up the craziest jingles and I still remember some of them. I will miss my old friend.
