“ Bradley my deepest and dearest condolences to you and your family. There are no words that can be said for your loss but please know I'm thinking of you and your family, along with sending many prayers for you and over you during this difficult time. Your dad, even though I know it's not easier, is in a much better place, no pain or suffering. Nothing but bright, glorious, beautiful and loving days of playing softball, coaching the heavenly teams, fishing, hunting and enjoying eternal life and happiness.Him and your mom are both watching over y'all and taking every step with you, to protect, guide and love you, heavenly love which you will know and feel. Brad, may God walk with you and comfort you, guide you and show you so much more. Much love and hugs...please remember, I'm here for you!!
