“Brother William was a gentle man with an unwavering love for the LORD, his wife, daughter, grand kids, and his church.

He made a profound and positive investment in many of the Boys of the church through his love and teaching of the Royal Ambassadors ("RA's". Several of those "Boys" are now ordained ministers serving the LORD. He was a Pastor's Friend.

He was on the Pastor Search Committee that eventually called me to New Canaan Baptist Church. He had a mild and loving manner about him, and whenever I spoke with him, I would always wind up laughing with him.

Along with his beloved and faithful wife, Sister Lynn, they endured and overcame many physical and medical hardships, but NEVER were bitter, nor ceased serving their LORD. They are the epitome of True and Faithful followers of Christ.

We know that Brother William is in the Presence of His Lord and Saviour, Jesus.

May God continue to bless Brother William's memory, and comfort his dear wife and daughter, Sisters Lynn, and Renee, and the Grand Children, and Extended Family.

Sister Caryla and I love, y'all.
