Praying for this sweet family. Bill worked with my Dad several years on his farm and I got to know him during that time. Bill was a brilliant man with a gentle spirit. I still ran into him fairly often, always had a smile. Going to miss him.

“ We used to live with Bill me and my mother and he taught me how to drive tractors when I was a teenager and we we're always hunting or lining up a hunt to go to on the weekends. I really am gonna miss that guy seeing him in town and out riding around some ol dirt road. My mother and I really loved you and you will be missed greatly!!!!!!

“ Bill was a good man and awesome person. When we were neighbors, he kept me in fresh vegetables during the summer months. He grew some of the prettiest okra and squash you'd ever see. He will certainly be missed as he was a great friend to a lot of people including my father in law RIP Bill, you were loved by many people...RIP Bill
