

Mr. Worthen Clytte Youngblood

February 12, 1927 - May 18, 2018

Worthen Clytte Youngblood, 91, of the Red Rock Community in Worth County, went peacefully to be with his Lord and Savior on May 18, 2018 while surrounded by his family at his home.

The Celebration of Life service will be held at 3:00 PM on Sunday, May 20, at the Salem Baptist Church in Worth County. Interment with Military Honors will follow in the Salem Church Cemetery. The Rev. Jackie Cabaniss and Rev. Tom Howard will officiate. The family will receive friends for Visitation from 2:00 PM until the Service Hour at Salem Baptist Church.

Mr. Youngblood was born on Feb. 12, 1927 in the Evergreen Community in Worth County, GA to the late John Bunyan and Lois Hinman Youngblood. A 1944 graduate of Bridgeboro School, he enlisted into the US Navy in 1945, serving honorably until his discharge from service in 1948. He enjoyed sharing his adventures while in the Navy, especially witnessing the Peace Treaty Signing on Sept. 2, 1945. On March 5, 1949, he married the LOVE of his life, Gloria Aultman, and spent the next 69 years as her loving and faithful husband.

Being a proud Southern Baptist Christian, he served Salem Baptist Church faithfully as Chairman of the Deacons, Music Minister and member of the Building and Cemetery Fund. He was Past President and Director of the Worth County Farm Bureau for many years. Known as the "EGGMAN", he owned and operated the South Georgia Egg Company in Sycamore, GA and managed the June Dairy Egg Plant in Cairo, GA. Farming was also an occupation, but more of a hobby, that he loved while growing enough vegetables to feed the Red Rock Community. In his free time, he enjoyed playing softball, fishing, hunting, cheering on the Braves, watching old westerns, and passing along his passions to his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Survivors include his beloved wife, Gloria; children, Jil Powell (Gene) and Hank Youngblood (Marsha); sister, Dean Ivey; grandchildren, Staci J. Powell, Jo Beth Maxwell (Bill), Molly Barnard (Shawn), Jacob Barnes (Courtney), Matthew Barnes, Abby Hembree (Leland), and 17 great grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Youngblood was preceded in death by his sisters, Mildred Reaves; Montez Johnson; Marguerite McClain; Patricia Holt and great-granddaughters Sealy Jewel and Harper Jane Hembree.

Pallbearers will be Jacob Barnes, Matthew Barnes, Luke Powell, Bill Maxwell, Shawn Barnard and Leland Hembree.

The family wishes to acknowledge the dedicated caregivers to Mr.

Youngblood: Mae Woodard, Bertha Fowler, Diane Anderson and Anita Clark.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to the Salem Baptist Cemetery and Building Funds C/O Salem Baptist Church 1171 Jewel Crowe Rd, Sylvester, GA 31791 and the Worth County Humane Society, 787 Ephesus Church Road, Sylvester, GA 31791.

“ Jil, Kathy and I are sorry for the loss of your father, but it is comforting to know he isn't suffering anymore. I know that after you see your loved one suffer you get to a point where you pray that God will go ahead and call them home but you will still miss them everyday. We only met your mother and father a few times at church but I could tell they were two fine christian people. Prayers for you, your mother and all the family. Eddie Hall

“ Aunt Gloria, Jill, Hank, Marsha and the entire Youngblood family, I am so sorry for your loss. I apologize for not being able to make the funeral however, you will be in our hearts and prayers during this difficult time. I have many fond memories of Uncle Worthen and always loved his high energy and enthusiasm for life. He was so upbeat and excited about his most recent project or challenge. He will be greatly missed on Earth but I'm sure he is representing us all well up in heaven. Dan Gurr

“ I have so many great memories of Uncle Word. I always loved going to his pond with Granny. Uncle Word would stop by and visit while we fished. Also, in recent years, I have learned so much about the Youngblood family listening to him and my mom talk. Sometimes those visits sounded like a comedy routine! They wouldn't hear each other and repeated everything. I loved him, and he will be missed.

John and I are saddened to hear about Worthen and know there will be a tremendous void in the family, Red Rock and Salem. He has left this world a much better place because of his kindness, influence, service, commitment and love for mankind. The heavenly choir has gained another melodious voice and dedicated song leader, rolled away, How Great Thou Art.

Life will never be the same for those closest to him.
